The Foreword from the Editor

There are some today who say, "God is dead." Others say, "The church is outmoded." A man once said to Carlyle, "Did you know that Christianity is on its last legs?" And Carlyle replied, "Christianity is always on its last legs." The Church always seems to be living precariously near to destruction; but it lives and it grows, because it is "tough."

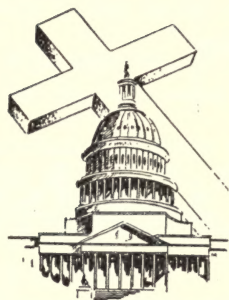

Bishop Gerald Kennedy uses this word "tough" in connection with the church's vitality. It is a word which needs to be in our vocabulary as churchmen. Says he, "The church is tough. It is so cohesive that nothing can pull it apart. There is something in it which is upheld by all the might of the universe. Its foundation goes down to the rock-bottom absolutes of life." He's right, and we increasingly need to rest in this assurance.

Despite the negatives heard about the church, our denomination this quadrennium is concerned over "renewal." Spiritual values are not created in a vacuum. There is need for the church today, as never before, to make effective the power of faith and to speak and act fearlessly. The world needs clear-cut word about "spiritual resources" and the "rebirth of faith." That's why this year we have as our denominational theme: "Jesus Christ Renews His Church Through Evangelistic Witness and Missionary Outreach." The Church is God's means of remaking men and society.

The Church is the only fellowship, the only institution that keeps men looking up. Without it, how pitiable would be our world; how sad would be our faith. This 1966 Year Book evidences the "toughness" of the Church as it pursues its divine mission. It bespeaks the activities of our denomination in all areas of Kingdom endeavor. Let it reveal the challenge of the unfinished tasks which beckon us.

The Next Year's Objective

"Jesus Christ
Renews His Church
Through It's Penetration
of the Total Community"

Fourth Year Objective: Jesus Christ Renews His Church through its Penetration of the Total Community.

Hymn: "Where Cross the Crowded Ways of Life" The Hymnal, number 413.

Text: Matthew 5: 13 You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trodden under foot by men.

Definition of purpose and program

A. To acknowledge the power of Jesus Christ to redeem the total culture

1. Through preaching on Biblical themes which relate to the responsibility of a Christian and the Church to society.
2. Through study in order that a better understanding of the areas of today's life which need Christ's redemption might be developed. Such understanding can come through the reading of contemporary literature, the use of audio-visuals, the observation of our own community scene and from many other sources.
3. Through worship services which help us to see that Christ is at work in the market place.
4. Through prayer which is concerned with the divided broken world around us and the injustices in our social order which are so evident on every hand.
5. Through the fellowship of the Church as it seeks in its corporate life to highlight the meaning of the Kingdom of God.

B. To release spiritual energies through the Church by a fresh and vital obedience to Jesus Christ which will permit the fellowship itself to become a potent witness to God's order in man's world

1. By witness and work on the part of the church in the community in which it is located.
2. By an inventive, adventurous, experimental demonstration of Christian fellowship in social action projects designed to meet basic human needs.
3. By helpfully sustaining the various members of the church fellowship in their individual struggle in their work and in other relationships where destructive social pressures are exerted against them.
4. Through participation in the world mission outreach of the church as a means of affecting Christian change in the social order around the world.
5. Through cooperation with councils of churches in the local community, the state, the nation and the world as these ecumenical bodies seek to make Christ's will known in our social order.

C. To accept the responsibility of Christian discipleship in personal social relationships

1. By becoming informed on the social issues in the community and the world.
2. By engaging in social action projects.
3. By recognizing that the Christian life is an influence and to exert that influence for Christ through voting, letters, conversations, attitudes and actions.
4. By seeking a more effective means of Christian witness in and through our work.
5. By seeking to make our home a center of Christian life.

The 1966 theme outline appeared in the 1965 Year Book. This theme presentation is for 1967 to enable advanced preparation.

Before the → General Conference

BY PAUL V. CHURCH, D.D.

Executive Secretary Council of Administration, and Program Director

THE FORTY-FIRST session of the General Conference of The Evangelical United Brethren Church will be held at the Conrad Hilton hotel in Chicago, Illinois, November 8-17, 1966. This will be the sixth General Conference since our Denominational Union.

The proposed union with The Methodist Church will be the greatest single issue before this General Conference. The major part of the first week of the conference will be devoted to debate on the Plan of Union. Some revisions of the plan will undoubtedly be made through negotiation with a special session of The Methodist General Conference which will be meeting at the same time and place. Finally a vote on the plan will be taken.

Favorable action to unite with The Methodist Church on the basis of the Plan of Union which is finally drawn up will require an affirmative vote by three-quarters of the delegates present and voting on the issue. Since there are approximately 420 voting delegates, more than 300 affirmative votes will be needed for adoption. The vote needed for approval in The Methodist General Conference is a two-thirds majority.

If both General Conferences vote favorably on the Plan of Union it will be submitted to the annual conferences in both denominations for voting in the spring and summer of 1967. Two-thirds of the aggregate vote cast in the annual conferences of each denomination must be affirmative in order to effect the Union. If the vote is favorable in the general conferences and the annual conferences of both denominations, Union will be officially consummated in Dallas, Texas, in April of 1968.

All other issues which will come before this General Conference will probably be viewed in the light of the action of the General Conference on the matter of Union. If the vote on Union is favorable it is probable that the General Conference will act in the expectation that the vote in the annual conferences will be favorable, but if it should fail or if a vote on Union should be postponed then the Conference would have to give serious attention to long range plans and programs for the years ahead.

One issue which will be looked at very seriously is a further perfecting of our church structure. Major changes in structure will undoubtedly be limited to the General Church, but some efforts will be made to improve the work which was done at the last General Conference on the structure of annual conferences and the local church. Although no major changes are expected on local church structure an effort will be made to correct some of the problems which have developed and to simplify its operation.

Attention must be given to long range planning for the future of the denomination's work, should the hoped for Union fail to materialize. Most Protestant denominations are giving much greater attention to this phase of their work as they confront the rapidly changing social order in which they carry on their mission. Our denomination will be faced with many serious problems which will not yield to easy solutions so that long range planning will be an essential part of any future work in the life of our denomination.

Among the issues which would have to be faced in such planning would be:

1. The plight of our many small churches in areas of declining population.
2. The problems confronted by our inner city churches.

Jesus Christ Renews His Church Through It's Penetration of the Total Community

—the next year's emphasis of the denominational theme
"Jesus Christ Renews His Church"

By J. ARTHUR HECK, Vice-president emeritus
United Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio

THROUGHOUT the year 1967 members of the Evangelical United Brethren Church will be demonstrating their concern for people in terms of their community relationships and their Christian responsibilities for the good of human society. The gospel of individual redemption is not ignored in the Christian's social concern. It is the basis rather out of which this concern arises. Jesus' primary concern was for persons. In conjunction with this was the overall theme of Jesus' ministry, the Kingdom of God, which is the divine society of persons.

The world situation as we know it today, highly complex and confusing as it is, can hardly be compared with the Palestinian situation within which Jesus ministered. The church today is confronted with innumerable questions and must make many decisions which are not in the thinking of Palestinians nineteen centuries ago. Yet the principles Jesus proclaimed are dynamic, creative, and relevant to every age. In our time we need to catch anew the spirit of Jesus, and find the larger meaning of obedience to the Lord of our lives and the Head of the Church.

One of the great fundamental truths of human existence is the interrelatedness of all persons within human society. This is an inescapable fact, whether we have been aware of it or not. The human race in its interdependence behaves like a huge organism—no part can function without in some manner affecting every other part. The action of the individual upon the individual, or the individual upon the group, or group upon group, will be for good or for ill, depending upon the quality of the action. The people of God in the earth bear the responsibility for making effective within the structures of society, the good that is the essence of the Kingdom of God on earth. It is God who brings in the Kingdom, but he is counting upon his Church to provide the instruments whereby his will can be accomplished.

The expression "total community" as it appears in the theme is a meaningful and challenging concept. It emphasizes the truth that there is no part of the human race that is beyond the responsibility of the church. The total community is the entire world of persons. Our God is Lord of the universe. Obedience to him carries our concern to the ends of the earth with the passion of divine love for all who are destitute or who suffer injustices at the hands of other persons. Probably the greatest need within our church is to overcome the prevalence of provincialism and the cancer of blind prejudice. We need to understand other persons. We need to learn what others think and how they feel, and why they think and feel as they do. Then, in Christian rapport, we need to acknowledge what is true and good in others, and share with them such experience as may help both them and us.

Passion Sunday
(Judica)

The church's involvement in total community calls the church constantly to the front lines of the human struggle for justice. It means that the message of the Kingdom of God must be proclaimed unto the uttermost parts of the earth and that the whole fabric of human society must be judged by its standards. It is the church's divine responsibility to raise the levels of human living and constantly strive to improve the human condition. Religion must never be divorced from life. Christianity must demonstrate to the world its social relevance. Christians can not be indifferent to human wrongs or tolerate needless suffering by the underprivileged or oppressed minorities.

The objectives of our denomination's program, as adopted by the General Conference, are stated as follows: "(1) To acknowledge the power of Jesus Christ to redeem the total culture. (2) To release spiritual energies through the church by a fresh and vital obedience to Jesus Christ which will permit the fellowship itself to become a potent witness to God's order in a man's world. (3) To accept the responsibility of Christian discipleship in personal social relationships." In carrying forward and making effective these objectives the church will be involved in a far-flung program of social action.

The term "social action" is still a relatively new word for many Christian people. Whenever any human being or group of persons seeks to make an impact upon social life or structure with a view to change, it is social action. To some, this process is frightening because it challenges to change. The established, institutionalized church of our time is not well-g geared to action. A new understanding and approach to the church is sorely needed.

Professor Roy D. Miller, in a recent article, well reminds us that "the church sufficient for these days begins its planning with a discovery and analysis of people and their needs, of social problems, of factors of power, of construction and destruction in the community." The church must definitely be concerned with the current problems arising out of industrialization, scientific technology, urbanization, suburbanization, secularization, and personalization. We are dedicated to the realization of a Christian society.

The Bible is clear that it is God's intention that the church shall penetrate the total community as we have described it. The ancient prophets of Israel were outstanding champions of social justice. Read again such stirring passages as Amos 2: 6-9; 6: 4-6; Hos. 4: 1-3; Micah 2: 1-3; Isa. 1: 23; Jer. 22: 13. The prophets of God hesitated not to confront magistrates and to condemn rulers for permitting injustice, cruelty and social oppression to deprive the poor of their rights.

Jesus set the key to his ministry in the prophetic words full of social challenge:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."—Luke 4: 18, 19.

Paul's words in Col. 3: 11 put to shame our racial and national prejudices, for in Christ there cannot be Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, or freeman. . . ." Love for neighbor is central to biblical religion. "If any one says, 'I love God,' and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen" (I John 4: 20). The heart of all Christian social action is its protest against the inhumanities and injustices that so largely characterize our world today.

There is a great array of specific problems which confront Christians in our time, and challenge the church to action. To list only a few, we remind ourselves of the problems of race prejudice, delinquency, profanity, alcohol, obscene literature, gambling, unemployment, and poverty. On the positive side, we must be concerned about the proper use of leisure time, about health and medical care, about the population explosion, relief and refugees, war and peace, disarmament, United Nations, church union, Protestant-Roman Catholic relations, church-state relations, overseas missions, and world order. These and other issues will be faced by study groups throughout the denomination during 1967.

CHRISTIAN COLLEGE DAY

In attempting to achieve most of the ends of the church's social concern it will be necessary for local churches to work together and make a united attack upon the citadels of evil, or a united approach to organized activity for the furthering of good causes. In the babel of the world's clamoring cries it is rarely possible to hear the word of a local congregation. Through Church Federations very much is being accomplished in positive Christian achievement in our world.

Study is an indispensable ingredient of any social action program. It is absolutely necessary that Christian people shall inform themselves. Knowledge is a necessary prelude to action. Unite with study groups in a zeal for better understanding.

Laymen in the church will need to cultivate a new sense of mission that will focus upon the needs of people, rather than upon how to renovate the church or how to beautify the premises. The life of the church must always point outward, away from itself.

The literature that will be made available in 1967 by the general church will throw much light upon our theme and outline lines of action.

Put forth a special effort to serve the persons who reside in the immediate neighborhood of the church. Make no distinctions between races, nationalities, or religious points of view.

Endeavor to incorporate the principles of Christian social action into every phase of the local church's program.

Issues Before the General Conference

3. The need to establish new mission churches in our rapidly expanding population at an accelerated rate.
4. The need to reach a much higher level of Stewardship if our denomination is to be effective in its mission.
5. New ways of ministry must be explored to help us to be more relevant to the needs of our time.
6. The recruiting of more persons for church related vocations is mandatory.
7. The future of our church related institutions of higher education must be squarely faced.
8. The continuing decline in membership and attendance in many areas of the life of our denomination produces a threat which demands action.
9. Improved curriculum and better trained leadership are issues which also challenge us.

We would not infer that all of these problems will be solved within the context of Union with The Methodist Church. Most of these issues must be faced whether or not union is voted, but these will become issues which our General Conference must confront in 1966 if Union is not an immediate prospect.

Apartments for thirteen couples and a new and enlarged infirmary at Haven Hubbard Home, New Carlisle, Indiana, will accommodate thirty-six patients; provides new recreational facilities, craft area, and food storage. Opened October 1, 1965.

We Look Forward to a New Curriculum

By HAROLD H. HAZENFIELD

Executive Editor, Sunday School Publications

WHEN will there be a new curriculum in The Evangelical United Brethren Church? This question has been asked many times. We are moving toward an answer to this question.

Why should we have a new curriculum? Isn't our present curriculum good enough? By curriculum we mean more than the printed materials that we use in our classes. These are only the tools for the teaching-learning process. Curriculum is changing constantly as new insights are gained and as changes take place in society. A curriculum becomes outdated and thus the church must always be planning ahead making necessary revisions and at times creating a new curriculum.

Curriculum in our church is defined in the following statement: "Curriculum is a consciously determined (and selected) plan and procedure by means of which the church provides opportunities for live teaching-learning experiences through which persons become aware of God and are guided in their response to him through faith and love." Printed materials are then produced to carry out this plan and procedure.

The Evangelical United Brethren Church has always cooperated with other denominations in the development of curriculum. We have cooperated through the years in the Committee on Uniform Series and the Committee on Graded Curriculum. In 1957 a four-year basic study of curriculum was launched by these committees. Following this four-year study 16 denominations united in the Cooperative Curriculum Project considering the question, "What kind of curriculum is needed by the Protestant churches of America?" A basic curriculum resource was developed including such elements as objective, scope, context, learning tasks, and organizing principle. The product of the Cooperative Curriculum Project was published in 1965. This is a basic book for denominations to use in the planning and building of a curriculum.

PROMOTION DAY IN THE CHURCH SCHOOL

The product of the Cooperative Curriculum Project has been used in new curriculum developed by a number of denominations. Our church has adopted it as the basis of our curriculum planning. The objective has been adopted as the objective of our church program. This objective reads: "The objective for Christian education is that all persons be aware of God through his self-disclosure, especially his redeeming love as revealed in Jesus Christ, and that they respond in faith and love—to the end that they may know who they are and what their human situation means, grow as sons of God rooted in the Christian community, live in the Spirit of God in every relationship, fulfill their common discipleship in the world, and abide in the Christian hope."

Our Church Curriculum Committee voted that we must continue to cooperate with a denomination or denominations in curriculum planning. Because of the similarity in church polity and doctrine, it was voted that we should cooperate with The Methodist Church. This action was taken as our procedure regardless of the vote on proposed church union.

The Curriculum Committees of the two denominations have been cooperating since 1964 in the production of a curriculum plan and outlines. This does not mean that printed materials will be produced cooperatively, although it is possible that some may be. The Methodist Church released a new curriculum for children in September 1964. The new youth curriculum materials will be published in September 1967. Some new basic courses for adults will be released in September 1968 with the revised International Uniform Lessons being released in September 1969.

When will the new curriculum for The Evangelical United Brethren Church be released? The tentative date is September 1968. The present working schedule is to have new curriculum materials ready for use at that time. These will be written on the new curriculum plan. Regional training workshops for annual conference leadership are being planned for the spring of 1966. As part of the new curriculum plan, the church school year will begin September 1 instead of October 1. Thus the first quarter will be September, October, November.

The new curriculum being developed cooperatively by The Methodist Church and The Evangelical United Brethren Church is based on the product of the Cooperative Curriculum Project.

The scope of the curriculum consists of five areas:

Life and Its Setting: the Meaning and Experience of Existence

Revelation: the Meaning and Experiences of God's Self-Disclosure

Sonship: the Meaning and Experience of Redemption

Vocation: the Meaning and Experience of Discipleship

The Church: the Meaning and Experience of Christian Community

Each area is organized into six or seven themes, making a total of thirty-two. The names of the areas have been slightly revised in the Methodist-EUB design. The themes are used in further development resulting in teaching-learning units.

It is to be a total church curriculum covering the total life-span. The levels of communication are described as follows:

Early childhood—1-5 years

Elementary years—6-11 years

Youth—12-18 years

Adult—19 years

If union with The Methodist Church is approved by both denominations we will move into the new curriculum in the united church. If church union is not approved it is the plan of our Church Curriculum Committee to produce our curriculum materials on the basis of the curriculum plan which is now being developed cooperatively. Thus, we look toward a new curriculum in our church.

National Council of Churches

THE National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America is the official agency of the Evangelical United Brethren Church for cooperating with 30 other national communions in common tasks. The National Council, established at Cleveland, Ohio, November 29, 1950, continues by merger the work of thirteen interdenominational agencies.

The business of the National Council is supervised by a policy-making General Board, consisting of 280 members, which meets three times a year, and administers a $16,906,760 budget. However, there are nearly 5,071 men and women who participate in shaping policy and program.

They are drawn from the 30 denominations that constitute the Council as well as other communions that participate in the work of one or more departments.

The National Council is truly a "partnership between the clergy and laity." Of the 5,071 listed above, 2,181 are lay men or women and 2,890 are clergymen.

Canadian Council of Churches

OUR Church has four representatives in the Canadian Council of Churches comprised of 9 member communions. The Council functions through an Executive Committee and the following Departments: Christian Education, Christian Social Relations, Ecumenical Affairs, Evangelism, Home Missions and Overseas Missions. There are also a number of standing Committees: Chaplaincy, Christian Vocation, Faith and Order, Inter-Church Aid and Service to Refugees, International Affairs, Stewardship and Home Missions.

Note: First line in "Contributions for all purposes" is given in marks. The second line converts the figures into United States dollars for purposes of summary. It is really not fair to do this without taking into consideration the varying economic and financial factors. German marks and Swiss francs have a practical economic value equivalent to a dollar, when kept in the European scene. In conversion, four Swiss francs and four German marks are equivalent to one dollar.

The American Bible Society

1966: 150th Anniversary Year

The American Bible Society is the authorized agency of the Evangelical United Brethren Church for giving the Bible to the world. The Society makes available translations (in cooperation with other national Bible Societies) in all the languages and dialects required by our missionaries and native workers in all the home and foreign fields in which our Church operates. In behalf of the Church it has played a large part in providing the Scriptures in 1,260 languages and dialects, in providing 100,000 Scriptures in braille, and distributing free material to the armed forces, migrants, the underprivileged, and victims of disaster. It has shared largely in the achievement of distributing 45,000,000 Scriptures in 1965.

The task ahead is to find the means to meet Bible needs. This year's budget for the Society is $6,348,000. Our Church's goal is $37,396.60. In 1964 we gave $21,259.86. The 82 supporting denominations are asked to give $1,600,000 annually. Will you aid in meeting our denomination's goal?

The "150th Anniversary Fund" of $10,000,000 to be raised in 1966 will be $6,000,000 for the program "God's Word for a New Age" to distribute 75,000,000 Scriptures, and $4,000,000 for a new Bible House in New York.

The gifts of churches and individuals to this work should flow through the Conference Treasurers to our denominational Church Treasurer, Dr. Cawley H. Stine, 601 W. Riverview Ave., Dayton 6, Ohio. In that way gifts are credited to our denomination.

WRITE GOD'S WILL INTO YOUR WILL

Persons desiring to remember the Church or any of its Boards, institutions or agencies in their last will and testament are encouraged and advised to secure the services of a lawyer or of some other qualified individual. This is advisable because of the variations in State laws governing bequests to religious and charitable agencies. Otherwise, the intent of the testator may be defeated. The greatest care should be exercised so that all bequests are made in the manner prescribed by law.

George W. Walton Hall, Albright College, Reading, Pa., is a newly-erected dormitory for 118 men. It cost $300,000 and dedication was Oct. 23, 1965.

MUST A MINISTER

KEEP SILENT?

Here is a close look at a minister's theological and legal right to receive and hold confidences.

THE RIGHT TO SILENCE / Privileged Communication and the Pastor
WILLIAM H. TIEMANN discusses the Church's historic position on confession and the current theological re-examination. He surveys court cases which have helped shape present statutes and offers guidance to the minister who has been subpoenaed. The author's emphasis throughout is that the pastor's right to silence is not adequately protected today. Three appendixes; fully indexed. $4.00

"The Cross with the Third Dimension"

ALTAR SETS

To the universally accepted three-step, square-base brass altar set, REVELL-WARE has added "The Cross with the Third Dimension" — a cross one full inch in depth in the most popular 24" and 30" sizes.

Here is altar ware created from heavy, solid brass — hand polished to a radiant luster, protected for many years by a guaranteed, baked-on enamel finish.

REVELL-WARE's forged bases are guaranteed to be free of the imperfections often found in the cast bases of other altar ware. The specially treated vase liners, perfectly matching the richness of REVELL-WARE's solid brass, cannot tarnish and are easily removed.

Beautifully proportioned, architecturally adaptable, the REVELL-WARE Altar set—available in four sizes—is designed for use in all types of churches, regardless of size.

Can you broaden YOUR church's ministry?

Certainly! One easy and effective way is to supply The Upper Room to each family in your congregation.

The Upper Room, which contains a daily Bible reading, prayer, meditation and Thought for the Day, has become more than just a publication. Interdenominational, interracial, and international, it has become a movement and a ministry, helping to fulfill the spiritual needs of millions of people in some 120 countries around the world.

Upwards to fifty thousand churches broaden their ministry through the distribution of The Upper Room to their families. These churches have found that it not only encourages individual and family worship, but also church attendance and support. Those who have devotions in the home are more dedicated church members.

The price is only 10 cents per copy in lots of 10 or more of one issue to one address. Churches can make this small cost self-liquidating.

When in Nashville, visit The Upper Room Chapel, Museum and Devotional Library. Write for free city map.
